

HIGHLIGHTS: CSCU Scholarships for Undocumented Students

No Cost to CSCU or the State of Connecticut

- Academic Scholarships are fully funded by The Dream.US
- Private funding includes $20,000 per year for out-of-state costs of tuition, fees, and on-campus housing and $7,250 per year for in-state costs for the four years while earning a bachelor's degree

CSCU Partnered with National Philanthropic Organization

- CSCU formed partnership with TheDream.US
- Students must meet full academic eligibility requirements to receive scholarship
- Majority of students have a 3.5 GPA or above
- Students must be from one of 16 “locked out” states including 16 states: Alaska, Arkansas, Georgia, Idaho, Indiana, Iowa, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, North Dakota, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, South Dakota, West Virginia and Wisconsin
- “Locked Out” states are where students either do not have access to in-state tuition or are prohibited from attending state schools

Does Not Impact Access for Connecticut Students

- 41 students from out of state and 5 students from Connecticut were accepted
- Students will attend Eastern Connecticut State University
- There is space available for any student who applies to Eastern

Aligned with CSCU Core Mission

- Part of CSCU's core mission is to increase access to higher education for all students who want it
- CSCU is committed to provide a safe learning environment that encourages and celebrates diversity and fosters a culture of inclusion
- The State of Connecticut implemented the DREAM ACT in 2011 which provides in-state tuition costs to undocumented residents who have graduated high school
