3. Summary of Function (attach required job description)

See Attached.

4. Rationale for Altering or Establishing Position

The responsibility for the administration of food service and bookstore previously held by the Vice President for Administrative Affairs was reassigned to the Associate Dean. In addition, the Associate Dean will write all contracts; negotiate for these approval from the Office of Policy and Management and the Attorney General's Office; and oversee payments. Educational Agreements for Nursing and Medical Technology have been added to his responsibilities. With the Vice President for Administrative Affairs, he will coordinately supervise the Accounting, Business and Payroll Offices. (These responsibilities are in addition to those previously performed by the Associate Dean as identified in the description that is attached. These increased duties are appropriately reflected in a salary increase of approximately ten percent.)

5. Conditions of Employment if Changed or Different from Norm.

Approved:
1. For Submission to PERC August 13, 1979
2. By Committee/Board
