GROUP INSURANCE TRUST
FIDUCIARY ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES STUDENT TRUST

THIS AGREEMENT, made and entered into at the City of Washington, District of Columbia on the first day of September 1981, by and between Fiduciary Administrative Services Company (hereinafter referred to as "Administrator") a New York corporation, and such other individuals who desire to participate and become parties to this agreement subsequent to its execution (hereinafter referred to as "Participating Members"); THE NATIONAL SAVINGS AND TRUST COMPANY (hereinafter referred to as "Trustee"); and Massachusetts Indemnity and Life Insurance Company (hereinafter referred to as the "Company").

WITNESSETH

The parties hereto are interested in providing group insurance programs for employees and individuals of the various employers who become eligible to participate in such programs (hereinafter referred to as "Participating Members"). It is the purpose of the parties, to that end, to create this Trust to be known as the Fiduciary Administrative Services Student Trust. The Administrator shall provide the management and administration of the insurance program for the Participating Members.

The Trustee will be custodian, owner, and holder of all insurance contracts and the Trustee hereof will not have any administrative functions and responsibilities, such responsibilities and functions being delegated to and assumed by the Administrator.

The Trustee has agreed to accept such trust arrangement and to act as custodian, owner, and holder of the insurance contracts subject to the conditions and limitations hereinafter set forth; and the Administrator has agreed to assume the responsibilities of all administrative duties in connection with the insurance programs for the parties, subject to the conditions and limitations hereinafter contained.

Fiduciary Administrative Service Company is qualified to administer group insurance programs, has agreed to act as Administrator of the insurance programs contemplated by this Trust, and said company has appointed the Administrator to administer said trust through a separate administration agreement.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the promises and mutual covenants and conditions hereinafter contained, the parties agree as follows:

1. The Administrator shall from time to time, prepare applications on behalf of the Trustee (as policyowner) to the Company for an insurance contract or contracts providing Accident, Health and Life insurance that will provide the maximum benefits in relation to the cost that the Administrator can secure for the Participating Members, in such amounts and subject to such conditions as the Administrator shall determine.

2. The Administrator shall receive applications for insurance coverage under the group insurance contracts, collect premiums, deposit funds without liability to invest or pay interest thereon, make payments as required and perform any and all functions as may be necessary for the administration of the insurance programs.

3. The Trustee shall not assume any responsibility nor be liable for collection remittance, forwarding or payment of premium for the Trust or its Participating Members or for the continuation of the coverage, or to apply for or obtain renewals thereof, or to replace same in the event of cancellation or termination thereof, nor shall it have any duties or responsibilities with respect to the payment, settlement, processing or presentment of claims.

4. All correspondence and monies that the Trustee may receive shall be promptly turned over to the Administrator at its office address herein stated.

5. All premiums shall be paid directly to the Administrator, and the Trustee shall not have any responsibilities hereunder, except that the Trustee shall act as holder of the insurance group contracts, shall sign such applications as may be prepared by the Administrator, and shall act as policyowner for all such group insurance contracts.
6. The Administrator is not authorized to incur any expense or obligation on the part of the Participating Members or the Trustee in connection with the administration of the insurance programs. All expenses for service and material incurred in connection with the administration of said insurance programs are to be borne exclusively by the Insurer and/or Administrator.

7. There shall be no obligation, direct or implied, upon any Participating Member of this Trust arising out of this agreement, except for the payment of premium for insurance.

8. This Trust Agreement shall terminate thirty (30) days after the termination date of the last insurance policy held by the Trust.

9. In consideration of the services rendered by the Trustee, the Administrator agrees to pay said Trustee a reasonable annual fee for each year that this Trust is in force, and to reimburse the Trustee for all its expense, including court costs and reasonable attorney’s fees in the event that the Trustee is a party to litigation.

10. The Administrator hereby agrees to prepare and file all tax or information returns, Federal, State, or local, that may now or hereafter be required and further agrees to prepare and file all documents or forms that may now or hereafter be required by law.

11. In the event the Trustee resigns, becomes incapacitated or is otherwise unable or unwilling to act as Trustee, the Administrator, as agent of the Participating Members of said Trust, shall appoint a Successor Trustee.

12. The Trustee or any successor in trust may resign by mailing in registered form written notice thereof to the Administrator and the Company not less than thirty (30) days prior to the effective date of such resignation. Upon receipt of such a notice, the Administrator may appoint a successor immediately.

13. Each Successor Trustee appointed hereunder shall have the same rights, immunities, and duties conferred or imposed herein upon the Trustee, provided, however, that a successor or successors in trust shall not be liable for acts or neglect of any predecessor trustee.

14. The Administrator hereby agrees to defend and hold the Trustee harmless of and from any and all claims or demands made or brought against the Trustee by any person, firm, corporation, or group arising out of its undertaking to act as Trustee hereunder, and from and against any losses the Trustee may incur or sustain in connection with this Trust occasioned by any act, neglect, or misconduct of the Administrator, and to save the Trustee free of and from any liability whatsoever.

15. This Trust Agreement is executed under the laws of the State of District of Columbia and the laws of the District shall control in determining the validity, meaning, effect and enforcement hereof.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have hereunto set their hands and seal the day and year first above written.
