Here is another way to look at the degree, by requirements

General Education Requirements: 36-37 credits

Unless a course is specifically designated, such as ENG 101 Composition for Written Communication I, you will have a choice about which course you take. For a list of the courses from each category that you can choose from, go to Appendix \(PDF\).

Written Communication I: ENG 101 Composition	3 credits
Written Communication II (select one):	3 credits
Scientific Reasoning (select one):	3-4 credits
Scientific Knowledge and Understanding (select one): Note: You must complete one science course that includes a lab. It can be in either science category.	3-4 credits
Quantitative Reasoning (select one): Central recommends MAT 167 Principles of Statistics	3-4 credits
Historical Knowledge and Understanding (select one):	3 credits
Social Phenomena I (select one):	3 credits
Social Phenomena II (select one):	3 credits
Aesthetic Dimensions I (select one):	3 credits

Major Program Requirements: 12 credits

SOC 101 Principles of Sociology	3 credits
Nine credits of SOC electives; six at 2## level	9 credits

Unrestricted Electives: 12 credits

*You are free to choose any courses at or above 100-level to complete unrestricted electives, although you may need to use these credits to take courses that prepare you for required courses in the degree program. You should also consider using unrestricted electives to meet foreign language requirements for your programs or to begin work on completing a minor. Central Connecticut State University will require that you complete a minor by earning at least 18 credits in one area outside your major field; you must complete at least 9 of those minor credits at Central. You can also complete other General Education requirements for CCSU, SCSU, WCSU, and COSC—but not ECSU. You are encouraged to meet with your advisor to determine which courses to select.

Sociology Transfer Degree Total: 60-61 credits

In order to graduate and be guaranteed admission to a State University or to Charter Oak State College, you must earn an overall 2.0 grade point average.

These requirements are effective if you declared this major for the 2016/17 academic year
