The Cooperative Education program which started out under a grant has become a substantial success and a major program of the University. It is appropriate at this time to recognize that fact and to give the Director of that program the status of a director of a major program. The change to rank 6 and a 7% increase in salary are evidence of this development. (Please see attached old and new job descriptions.)

INCUMBENT NAME: Giles Parker

POSITION SUMMARY:

The Director of Cooperative Education reports directly to the Vice-President of Academic Affairs and works within academic policy guidelines promulgated by the Cooperative Education Committee. Within this context, the coordinator has sole responsibility for the administration of the program. The program provides students with an alternative to the traditional four-year academic format by allowing them to integrate periods of carefully planned and supervised field work experience blocks with traditional studies and thus better prepare them for a career following graduation. Administers the Cooperative Education Program which includes placement of students in supervised work experiences and the development of support for and participation in the program from area employers. Promotes Cooperative Education Program among faculty and administrative staff.

POSITION RESPONSIBILITIES:

Conducts employer interest surveys, speaks before civic and professional groups, schedules meetings with interested employers to conclude a written agreement, arranges for the identification, referral and interview of potential candidates. Troubleshoots problems as they occur during the student's work term.

Manages the intake of student-participants in the program. Advertises program to develop an awareness and interest among students to insure sufficient applicants to reach target level of student participation. Meets with students individually and in groups for the purpose of explaining the program and to help them define career goals and develop expertise in resume writing and interview technique.

Determines operational priorities of the Cooperative Education Office. Designs the work of the secretary, assistant coordinator and student help; designs systems, procedures and forms for administering the program; supervises and evaluates personnel.

Meets regularly with faculty, department chairpersons and administrators to gain support for the program and receive feedback to serve as a guide in initiating change. As ex-officio member, meets regularly with the Cooperative Education Program Committee.

Seeks funds to augment general-fund support of the program. Plays an active role in state and regional associations, identifies sources of outside funds, writes grant requests to secure these funds.

Performs other duties and responsibilities related to those enumerated above which do not alter the basic level of responsibility of the position.

EDUCATION AND EXPERIENCE

Master's degree and four to five years of experience in cooperative education, corporate education programs, career development required. These qualifications may be waived for individuals with appropriate alternate experience.
