New Regents Training

as required by Public Act No 22-16
effective July 1, 2022

| TOPIC | Methods for meeting statutory, regulatory, and fiduciary obligations
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>-</th>
<th>Statutory and institutional ethical responsibilities</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| AGB New Board Member Orientation | Membership
- Regents’ duties to the State and to CSCU
- NECHE Standards for Accreditation
- Each BOR Committee and its function
- Development and implementation of CSCU policies
- Meeting schedules |
| Board Office Orientation | Business operations, administration, budgeting, financing, financial reporting, financial reserves, endowment management
- Student tuition, mandatory fees, student debt trends
- Oversight of planning, construction, maintenance, expansion, and renovation projects
- HR workforce planning, strategy, and investment
- Institutional advancement (i.e., philanthropic giving, fundraising, alumni programming, communications, media, government and public relations, and community affairs)
- Professional accounting and reporting standards |
| Finance & Administration Orientation | Student welfare issues (i.e., academic studies, curriculum, residence life, student governance and activities, general physical and mental well-being) |
| Academic & Student Affairs Orientation | Freedom of Information Act
- Public Meeting guide |
| Legal Orientation | Annual update concerning current and anticipated issues in higher education |
| Annual Retreat |
-  |