Goals
1. Bring everyone up to speed on the TAP implementation process and the new Transfer Tickets -- a quick overview
2. Explore best practices for determining which courses fulfill the Framework30 competencies
3. Look Ahead: assessing Framework30 competencies
4. Deepen student success conversations across areas of the Colleges and Universities

Agenda

10:00 Welcome from Dorsey L. Kendrick, President, Gateway Community College

10:15 Framework30: Vetted courses: Where we stand
   Competencies to outcomes to rubrics
   Candace Barrington, CCSU, TAP Co-Manager
   Ken Klucznik, MCC, TAP Co-Manager

10:45 Two models for vetting courses for the Framework30:
   Presentations:
   Capital Community College
   Becky DeVito, CCC
   Stephen Fagbemi, CCC
   Three Rivers Community College
   Sarah Selke, TRCC
   Mike Stutz, TRCC
   Questions and Discussion

12:00 – 12:15 Lunch is served

12:15 Welcome from Stephen Adair, Chair, FAC

12:30 Designing and Implementing Guided Pathways in Connecticut
   Shun Robertson, Director
   Lexie Waugh, Senior Program Manager
   Jobs for the Future

1:00 Table conversations with guiding questions

1:30 Debriefing and final thoughts: best practices and other considerations/closing the loop from vetting to assessment

2:00 Adjourn