Unrestricted Electives:* 6-9 credits

*You are free to choose any courses at or above 100-level to complete unrestricted electives, although you may need to use some these credits to take a math course that prepares you for the required level of math in your program. You should also consider using unrestricted electives to meet foreign language requirements at Central, Eastern and Western Connecticut State Universities or to begin work on completing a minor. Central Connecticut State University will require that you complete a minor by earning at least 18 credits in one area outside your major field; you must complete at least 9 of those minor credits at Central. You can also complete other General Education requirements for Central, Southern and Western Connecticut State Universities and Charter Oak State College—but not Eastern Connecticut State University. Your advisor will help you to determine which courses to select.

Art Studies Transfer Degree Total: 61 credits

In order to graduate and be guaranteed admission to a State University or to Charter Oak State College, you must earn an overall 2.0 grade point average.

1For admission to CCSU’s Art Program: 1. All art majors must submit a portfolio of works for consideration by the art faculty. Students whose portfolios do not meet standards will be required to take supplemental courses. No student will be allowed to proceed on to a 300-level (or higher) studio course without a successful portfolio review. 2. Art majors much complete 15 credits in courses at the 300-level or above. 3. Students can choose 18-credits of directed electives OR a minor in another department.

2For admission to ECSU’s Studio Art and Digital Art and Design Concentrations: Students interested in the Studio Art Concentration are required to submit a portfolio for admission to the program after completing designated foundation courses. The portfolio will include 10 samples of the student’s work (4 examples of drawing and/or painting, 3 examples of printmaking and/or 2-D Design, 3 examples of 3-D design and/or sculpture). Portfolios must be carefully prepared according to guidelines available in the Art and Art History Department office. Portfolio Guidelines are also available online at the Art & Art History Department website. Portfolios must be submitted and program admission approved before students can enroll in 300-level studio courses. Grades of less than 2.0 (C) will not count toward the major. Students whose portfolios do not meet standards will be required to take supplemental courses. No student will be allowed to proceed on to a 300-level (or higher) studio course without a successful portfolio review. Studio Art Concentration – Portfolio Guidelines for Transfer Students
10 Samples of Artwork are Required

Revised 03/09/2021
• 4 samples demonstrating basic proficiency in drawing and/or painting
• 3 samples demonstrating basic proficiency in printmaking and/or 2-D design
• 3 samples demonstrating basic proficiency in 3-D design and/or sculpture

Students interested in the Digital Art and Design Concentration are required to submit a portfolio for admission to the program after completing the two Digital Art Techniques courses: ART 122 (or CC equivalent) and ART 124. The portfolio will include 10 samples of the student’s work (two examples each from Illustrator, InDesign, Photoshop and Dreamweaver and two samples from either Drawing I or 2-Dimensional Design). Portfolios must be carefully prepared according to guidelines available in the Visual Arts Department office. Portfolios must be submitted and program admission approved before students can enroll in 300-level design courses. Grades of less than 2.0 (C) will not count toward the major.

3For admission to ECSU’s Art History or Illustration Concentration: These concentrations do not require a portfolio.

4For admission to SCSU Studio Art B.A.: (1) All majors in studio art must earn grades of “C” or higher in courses counted toward the studio art major. (2) Transfer students majoring in the Studio Art B.A. must take at least 50 percent (half) of their studio art credits at Southern. This means only the pathway’s 5 minimum required studio courses (ART 111, 121, 122, plus two course from line 35) will count towards the Studio Art B.A.; additional studio art courses will transfer as unrestricted free electives. (3) Transfer students who enter with 60 to 89 credits are required to pass two W-courses.

5For admission to SCSU’s Studio Art B.S. with Concentrations in Ceramics, Graphic Design, Jewelry/Metals, Painting, Photography, Printmaking, or Sculpture: (1) All majors in studio art must earn grades of “C” or higher in courses counted toward the studio art major. (2) Transfer students majoring in Studio Art must take at least 50 percent (half) of their studio art credits at Southern. (3) Transfer students who enter with 60 to 89 credits are required to pass two W-courses.

6For admission to WCSU’s Art Program: 1. All art majors must submit a portfolio of works for consideration by the art faculty. Students whose portfolios do not meet standards will be required to take supplemental courses. No student will be allowed to proceed on to a 300-level (or higher) studio course without a successful portfolio review. 2. Students must earn a minimum of “C” grade in each Art department course that counts toward the major. Art courses with grades below “C” must be retaken to satisfy this requirement.
