*You are free to choose any courses at or above 100-level to complete unrestricted electives, although you may need to use these credits to take courses that prepare you for required courses in the degree program. You should also consider using unrestricted electives to meet foreign language requirements at Central, Eastern and Western Connecticut State Universities or to begin work on completing a minor. Central Connecticut State University will require that you complete a minor by earning at least 18 credits in one area outside your major field; you must complete at least 9 of those minor credits at Central. You can also complete other General Education requirements for CCSU, SCSU, WCSU, and COSC—but not ECSU. You are encouraged to meet with your advisor to determine which courses to select.

**QVCC does not offer these courses. In order to complete the Criminology Studies CSCU Pathway Transfer Degree at QVCC, you will need to take these courses online or at another campus. These options might have prerequisites for these courses that will need to be taken into account using your Unrestricted Electives. Your advisor will be able to help you determine which courses to take.
